GOVERNMENT AUCTION SALE

Of one and one-half million acres of land. A part of the Crow Indian reservation will be sold to the highest bidders at Billings, Montana, on October 15, at not less than $2 per acre, and the unentered land in the former Uintah Indian reservation will be sold at Provo, Utah, Nov. 1, 1910, at not less than fifty cents an acre.

Any one may purchase not more than 640 acres in each of these reservations, either in person or by an agent, without showing his qualifications to make entry under any of the public land laws.

The lands in Utah must be paid for in cash at the time of the sale, while but one-fifth of the purchase price of the Montana lands must be paid in cash and the remainder may be paid in four equal annual installments, without interest.

These lands are suitable principally for grazing and dry farming purposes, and no residence or cultivation will be required by the government. Patents will be issued as soon as the whole of the purchase money is paid.

By remitting 25 cents, after October 1, 1910, any person can obtain a map of the Crow lands from the U. S. land office at Billings, Mont., or a map of the Uintah lands from the U. S. land office at Vernal, Utah, or maps of either of the reservations can be obtained at that price from James W. Witten, sup't of the sale, Washington, D. C.

Fertilizers for Wheat

The use of fertilizers with wheat in many sections of Missouri is becoming a common practice. Most of the lands of the state of medium to poor fertility, where wheat is grown, respond to an application of fertilizers, and the following general recommendations are made concerning their use.

On badly worn lands the most remunerative fertilizer application for wheat will usually be one of the complete fertilizers containing from 1½ to 2½ per cent nitrogen, from 8 to 12 per cent available phosphoric acid and from 2 to 3 per cent potash applied with a fertilizer drill at the rate of 100 to 150 pounds per acre at the time the wheat is sown.

On lands that have been fairly well kept up in humus by crop rotation, manuring and legume growing the application of 125 to 150 pounds of good grade of steamed bone meal will be better practice. Such a bone meal will contain 1½ per cent nitrogen and from 28 to 30 per cent phosphoric acid, about one-half of which is available.

The raw bone meal will also give good returns, but it contains from 2½ to 4 per cent nitrogen, which is more than one can afford to apply if the nitrogen has been maintained by proper systems of farming.

The use of 150 to 200 pounds of acid phosphate on such lands will also be very remunerative. This acid phosphate contains from 14 to 16 per cent phosphoric acid, practically all of which is available; and its cost is around $17 per ton, while the steamed bone costs about $25 and the raw bone about $28 per ton.

The acid phosphate has a tendency to cause the land to become sour, with continued use, and especially on lands where lime is already beginning to be needed, its long-continued use is not so desirable as that of bone meal. The bone meals also have a more lasting effect, due to the large amount of phosphorus which they contain in a more or less insoluble form, and their use is to be recommended in preference to the acid phosphate. Prof. M. F. Miller, Agricultural Experiment Station, Columbia, Missouri.

The Frisco Scholarship Prizes

The Frisco Scholarship to the short winter course in Agriculture at the University of Missouri next winter for Bollinger county will be awarded at Marble Hill October 13, 1910. Are you in the game?

These scholarships will consist of $100 in cash, which will be sufficient to pay all necessary expenses of the recipient, including railroad fare for the full term of fourteen weeks, beginning November 1, 1910.

Would you like to be a better farmer? Wouldn't you like to learn how to select and grow better corn, to know how to handle your soil to make it produce more than it is doing now, to know the best types of farm animals, to learn how to feed your cows to make them produce more milk, to learn how to feed your hogs and cattle to make them make cheaper gains? Wouldn't you like to learn more about farming? The opportunity is yours. Some one from Bollinger county will have an opportunity to study these things at the university next winter. Why not you?

Remember this scholarship is to be awarded to the man or boy sixteen years of age or over who grows and exhibits the best ten ears of corn in Bollinger county this year. If you can win $100 with ten ears of corn will it not be worth trying for?

Are you interested in this contest? Then write to C. B. Hutchinson, Columbia, Mo., for rules and full information concerning it. For particulars about the corn show in Bollinger county, write to Sam Jordan, Columbia. C. B. Hutchinson, Secretary Missouri Corn Growers' Association, University of Missouri, Columbia.
